

Belize Audubon Society Hosts 47th Annual General Meeting

The Belize Audubon Society held its 47th Annual General Meeting the evening of Friday May 27th at the Radisson Fort George Hotel & Marina. Members from across Belize came together to share in the 2015 achievements of the organization and to elect members of the Board of Directors.

Key achievements for the year 2015 include: the development of management plan, improved infrastructure and rat eradication at Half Moon Caye Natural Monument funded by Oak Foundation; the successful implementation of two community development projects benefiting five buffer communities of Cockscomb Basin Wildlife Sanctuary and Half Moon Caye and Blue Hole Natural Monuments supporting alternative livelihoods and reducing pressure on the natural resources of the aforementioned protected areas.

After sharing highlights of the 2015 work year and the financial report, elections for the Board of Directors was held. At the close of the AGM, the elected Board of Directors of the Belize Audubon Society for 2016 - 2017 are: Earl Green, President; Mike Heusner, 1st Vice President; Carlton Young, 2nd Vice President; Simon Reardon Smith, Treasurer; Marilyn Young, 1st Secretary; Judy Lumb, 2nd Secretary; Lascelle Tillett, Director; Lisa Zayden, Director; Randal Taylor, Director; Julie Robinson, Director; and Ernest Raymond Sr., Director; Kevin Geban, Director; and Silverio Marin, Directors.

The Belize Audubon Society extends special thanks to the past Board of Directors for their commitment and service to the Society. Their support and contribution to the development of the organization is greatly appreciated. We would also like to thank all donors, who generously contributed prizes for the event.

The Belize Audubon Society thanks all those who came out and encourages all Belizeans to become stewards of the environment by becoming members today!
